

Lan Hewlett Award

Call for Nominations

This award is named in honor of Mr. Lan Hewlett, the long-time advisor at the University of Texas, who is generally acknowledged as the first in the field to provide academic support services to student-athletes. This award is presented annually to the advisor who has demonstrated the following:

1. A sustained professional service in academic advising for college student-athletes
2. A high level of competency in administrative skills
3. A merited stature among and support from student-athletes, faculty, coaches, and fellow administrators
4. An innovative response in meeting varied and emerging needs of student-athletes
5. An effectiveness in the development of junior staff (where appropriate)
6. Significant contributions to the field through publications or professional involvement/development
7. Leadership in university affairs

The award is presented at the annual N4A convention during the N4A Awards Luncheon. This year's convention will be held at the Sheraton Salt Lake City Hotel. Award nominations are due by Wednesday, April 21, 2010.

Please include the following information in your nomination:

1. Name, Title and School of nominee
2. The Nominee's number of years of professional service in athletics academic advising
3. The Nominee's number of years of membership in N4A
4. A 1-2 page nomination statement, addressing how the individual has met the award criteria

Please send your completed nomination by e-mail to: Mark Meleney, awards@nfoura.org.
