

Steve McDonnell

Steve McDonnell joined the Texas A&M Athletic department staff in December 1999 as the associate athletics director for academic services. McDonnell served as the assistant athletics director for student-athlete services at Iowa State University from 1987 – 1999. Steve was also the assistant dean of students at Iowa State from 1982-1987.

Steve earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Michigan in 1969 and his master's degree from Ball State University in 1980. Steve has completed most of the course work for his doctorate degree in professional studies in higher education from Iowa State.

Steve serves as the advisor to the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and Aggies CAN. In 2002 McDonnell was recognized by having a Fish Camp named after him.

McDonnell has been an active member of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics (N4A) for the past seventeen years. He has served on the executive board of the N4A on many occasions and was recently elected to the position of president-elect. McDonnell also serves as a member of the Division 1A Athletic Directors CHAMPS Executive Board.

Steve and his wife, Ginny, have two sons, Tim (24) and Christopher (16).